An eight paged—56 column paper filled with home news and advertising. It looked prosperous as did its owner while here. Some years ago a young man by the name of Harry Potter came from his shop and worked as a reporter for several months. He was a bright boy and finally became an expert linotype operator.

Mrs. Evis I. Cook and Mrs. Elizabeth Swasey from the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Daughters of Veterans, Saturday afternoon decorated the soldiers' graves, of the Revolution and Civil Wars, in the Shedd, Merrill, Lapel, Carter and Frost cemeteries. Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dillon of Lewiston came to Norway to visit his sister, Mrs. Will Gary and family. Sunday morning they all went to Rumford Falls, taking Chas. A. Frost along with them, going by way of Bethel Hill. Charles says: "there were six big trucks hauling gravel on to the road between Bethel and Rumford Falls, the trucks are kept in quite good condition. We drove all around the Falls and did not have to back out of but one place, it was so quiet there it seemed almost suspicious. As I stepped into Hotel Rumford Sheriff Cole put his hand on my shoulder but after talking with me a few minutes and seeing I was in good company allowed me to pass along. We came back on the east side of the River and ate our dinner on its steep bank where the River was broadest. Mrs. Olfene drove the car from Bethel to Rumford Falls. We went over Paris Hill on our way home making the trip about eighty five miles."

Sad story: The playful pup, thoughtless of danger, rushed headlong into the street. The passing ice truck tried to avoid it and failed. Its quivering remains resembled a crushed hat in the street. Thus ends the earthly journey of Dr. Bradbury's young Airdale Terrior, Sunday, October 2, 1921.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

October Term

The twin cases of Mary B. Andrews vs. Andrew A. Jenkins to recover $5,000 for injuries, and of her husband, Charles B. Andrews who sued Jenkins for $1,000 to cover expenses incurred by the accident, terminated Thursday afternon. The jury awarded Mrs. Andrews $400.00 and Mr. Andrews received $1.00.

Mrs. Lottie Kimball appeared against Richard Ford in an action to recover payment for board and services for a term of fourteen years. Both parties reside in Mexico. Mrs. Kimball is a widow with three children and became acquainted with the defendant about sixteen years ago. Two years later he entered her home as a boarder. A friendship developed into love and they became engaged, according to the plaintiff's story. After this, she went to his home as housekeeper, where she performed all the customary duties of that position for fourteen years. Sometime in January another woman appeared to break up the harmony of the home. The action was brought to recover recompense for labor performed and for board during the period before the other woman made her entrance. The case was withdrawn from the jury and settled out of court. Albert Beliveau and A. E. Stearns appeared for Mrs. Kimball, Geo. Hutchins and R. T. Parker for the defendant.

The appeal of Erwin G. Giles from the decree of the judge of probate, with Fred R. Dyer and Harry L. Cram for the appelant, and J. E. F. Connolly for the defence made a trial of some length. This case started Friday and ended Monday forenoon.

This action was to break the will of Mary E. Giles, late of Brownfield, on the ground she possessed an enfeebled mind and not competent to execute a will. A charge was also brought she had been unduly influenced in dividing her property. Mrs. Giles was the widow of Loring R. Giles and the mother of four sons and three daughters. The appelent is one of the sons.

Two wills were introduced, one drawn up in Bridgton, the other purporting to be a later document made in Portland and therefore the one upon which the appelent brought the action.

Numerous witnesses described the mental and physical condition of Mrs. Giles at, and prior to the date of the wills. Observations differed widely, but medical testimony failed to show any abnormal condition of the mind, although bodily infirmities were noticeable.

After deliberating thirty-five minutes, the jury returned a verdict, that Mrs. Giles had not been unduly or illegally influenced while drawing her last will and testament. The document made at Portland was recognized as her last testament.

Raphael Rudeus of Rumford appeared against Joe Ploplis also of Rumford to recover $710 said to have been lost in a card game by alleged crooked dealings. According to the plaintiff the two were playing "twenty-one" during the evening of January 30 of the present year with stakes varying from $10 to nearly $50. Taking advantage of the plaintiff's intoxicated condition, the defendant used marked cards and so manipulated them, the plaintiff lost heavily until his big roll of greens said to total $1,000, dwindled to a fraction of the original pile. He claimed the defendant urged him on in spite of the advice of friends, and claimed the game broke up after the defendant was discovered using methods not according to Hoyle. A pack of marked cards was introduced, said to be similar to those used at the time.

The defence was a general denial of about everything spectacular. Ploplis admitted gambling with the plaintiff on that date, but nobody was intoxicated. He saw no big money and was not aware the cards had been "doctored." The defense disclosed the fact about the only money Rudeus had was some $26 from a pay check and not a vast sum as he mentioned. Furthermore the stakes were $1 on the first ante, then doubled until the third hand. The defendant claimed his winnings for the evening were slight, as he broke away only $7 ahead of the game, but not the amount charged. He denied having enticed the plaintiff into the game, but reversed the charges and blamed the plaintiff for keeping the sport alive.

The principals and witnesses spoke the Lithuanian language, therefore Abe Stearn acted as interpreter and slow progress was made on both direct and cross examinations. After sifting over the evidence, the question propounded to the jury related the amount said to have been extracted from Rudeus in the game. After a session of thirty-five minutes the jury decided $710 was due Rudeus for his loss. Matthew McCarthy appeared for Rudeus, Aretas E. Stearns and Albert Beliveau for Joe Ploplis.

The action of Mrs. Annie Pledge of North Andover, Mass., vs. James Pledge of Norway awakened local interest, a large crowd assembled to hear the evidence. The action was to recover $540 for services as housekeeper and nurse for the defendant covering a period from Oct. 1, 1920 to April 9, 1921, while employed at his home in Norway.

A special jury was drawn from the two panels and supernumaries as follows:

J. M. Doyen.
L. A. Clifford.
A. R. Millett.
A. F. Russell.
R. A. McAllister.
Harriett Abbott.
F. I. Bean
H. I. Bean.
Guy L. Curtis.
Webster Kilgore.
C. A. Bean.
H. F. Lord.
L. H. Chandler.

Mrs. Annie Pledge and her husband, William, who is James Pledge's nephew, came to Norway from Massachusetts on a visit in June, 1920, some three months after the death of Mrs. James Pledge. Both were received with hospitality and after looking the town over, the plaintiff and her husband decided to remain, and found employment in the shoe factory. By a mutual understanding, the couple made their home at James Pledge's. According to the defendant he furnished the groceries, fuel, paid all household expenses, and charged no board. Mrs. Pledge asked the plaintiff to look after not at the factory. In October both gave up the shop and it is charged James Pledge asked the plaintiff to look after his home as she would her own, giving her full time there, saying according to the plaintiff, "You will never be sorry, as I have given you all my property in a will." This offer was accepted with no further talk of recompense according to the testimony. James Pledge also gave his nephew a clerkship in his meat market at $20.00 per week and board.

Sometime in February the Pledge market didn't need his services. After a short vacation, William secured a job at the Novelty Turning Co., later he worked elsewhere. During this period no board money was asked for or given. A conversation between the uncle and nephew over a dog fight, caused William to pack his goods and leave, taking his wife with him. James Pledge's statements referred to his friendly feelings toward the couple at their departure, as he endeavored to persuade them to remain and "forget it." The writ in the case was served the following day with the amount stated inclusive to this date.

Mrs. Pledge described her household duties as common to the ordinary small family with an addition of cleaning up after card games. Said games according to the plaintiff were almost of nightly occurrences with from two to eight guests leaving a collection about the stove, in the cuspidor or upon the floor to be removed the following morning. James Pledge's ill health at times was a cause for additional services, as nurse and dietitian it was charged, with an additional cost added for services rendered.

The defence brought out evidence showing sickness was not of long duration, as indicated by a physician's bill for $10. Evidence was introduced to show Mr. Pledge prepared much of his own food, and the five meals a day were largely cups of tea and light lunches. Mr. Pledge also stated he was absent from his market only for brief intervals and able to wait on trade practically all the time.

The jury were out forty-five minutes and returned a verdict of $378 in favor of Mrs. Pledge. Alton C. Wheeler for Mrs. Pledge and Merton L. Kimball of Kimball & Son, Norway, for the defence.

This is th first case in the annals of the Oxford County Courts to be heard with a woman juror on the panel. Harriett Abbott of Fryeburg is the woman pioneer in this county to blaze the trail for a general practice of drawing women for this important mission.

Criminal Business

County Attorney Harry M. Shaw took up the Criminal Docket with Judge Dunn and numerous appealed cases were disposed of by default or otherwise.

Vivian Buck of Paris, indicted by the grand jury pleaded guilty to larceny of money from a dwelling. Judge Dunn was unwilling to proceed until the young man had counsel to protect his interests as the law provides. The court appointed Matthew McCarthy as his counselor, who had Buck placed under $1,000 surety offered by the father, John Buck, for his appearance in court from day to day.

Fred F. Eastman of Peru pleaded nolo to larceny. A plea for leniency based on extenuating circumstances was ably presented by Attorney Hutchins of Rumford. After a consultation between the Judge, the County Attorney and counsel, the action was continued with the respondent under a $1,000 bond to appear from term to term.

Fred Faneuf of Norway was brought into court Tuesday on an indictment charging the manufacture of intoxicating liquor other than cider. He was represented by W. G. Conary and pleaded not guilty. A $400 cash bail was furnished for his appearance from day to day.

The suit of George M. Stevens of Waterford vs. Carroll Brown of Portland charging fraud in securing timber to the amount of $1,685.30, was non suited after the plaintiff's evidence had been presented. Stevens secured judgment for that amount against the Mills Forest City Lumber Co., in another county, but has been unable to collect as no corporation exists. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens' testimony brought out facts concerning the sale of two car loads of boards to Burnett Mills said to be president and general manager of the concern. It is alleged the buyer representing the firm had ample means to pay for the same on delivery. The boards were shipped from Turner in 1915 and accepted but not paid for. The plaintiff endeavored to bring action for deceit after learning the company included only two people and the name taken and used for business purposes and prestige. George C. Wing for plaintiff. Wm. H. Gulliver for defendant.

Lawrence L. Smith of Buckfield brought action against Arthur L. Harriman of Norway to recover $500, the value of two checks, and $150 the amount paid for certain machinery installed in a saw-mill at Buckfield.

The suit followed the foreclosure of a certain mortgage given the defendant by Roy H. Bradbury, a partner in a small saw-mill at Buckfield. Smith, having bought Harriman's interest from Bradbury, was left with no property to represent his investment it was alleged.

The story commenced when the plaintiff who was a clerk at North Station in Boston and on a vacation at the John Bradbury place in Buckfield in 1920. His cousin, Roy H. Bradbury, and Arthur L. Harriman were partners in the mill business and the visitor became interested to an extent of making conversation of getting into the firm. A third party plan was not agreeable to Smith, and Mr. Harriman decided to dispose of his interest, leaving an opening for Smith if he chose to accept the terms.

The three met in Eugene F. Smith's office in Norway, the forenoon of Aug. 6, 1920, to make a transfer of the property to Bradbury and Lawrence L. Smith. The fact developed that Smith was a minor and this held up the deal until later in the day, when the three again appeared. Mr. Harriman conveyed his interest to Mr. Bradbury by mortgaged deed and Bradbury who admitted on the stand he was willing to take a chance on the minor Smith, at once transferred a half interest of $2500 to Mr. Smith. Mr. Smith in part payment tendered two personal checks amounting to $500. These were endorsed by Mr. Bradbury and given to Mr. Harriman and credited to his (Bradbury's) indebtedness. The defendant held a mortgage on the mill, lumber, and standing timber.

The new firm known as Bradbury & Smith operated a while and apparently prospered. Certain new machinery was installed by them to the amount of $150, paid for with shingles manufactured in the mill. Partial payments representing $478 were made on the purchase during the short time Mr. Bradbury remained in the firm. In March, Mr. Harriman foreclosed, and removed all machinery during Smith's absence. As a result the suit in two writs was brought to recover the two original payments and cost of machinery installed.

The jury were out twenty-five minutes and returned a verdict for the plaintiff of $516.25 in one writ and $135 for the machinery. Fred R. Dyer for plaintiff. Eugene F. Smith, for defendant.

Frank Jaunacci of Rumford, indicted for assault with intent to kill, pleaded guilty to assault and battery. He was represented by Albert C. Beliveau. Jaunacci was fined $50 and costs or 60 days in jail.

Grace Belilaqua of Rumford appeared on the charge of assault with intent to kill. Albert Beliveau's story to the court was a tale of an Italian misunderstanding and as usual the spirit of fight was manifest. A knife is said to have caused some trouble. The respondent is married with several young children and Judge Dunn continued the case for an interview with the complainant.

Thomas Kennaugh of Greenwood pleaded guilty to intoxication and operating an automobile while in that condition. He paid $164.75.

Overland Gypsy Journey

Wm. Lee passed through a portion of Oxford County the week of October 9. He was seen at Moose Pond Bridge in Denmark on that day and interviewed by the Mrs. Editor and in substance told the same story as was related to the Rambler of the T. J. of Franklin, N. H. on the 4th of the month, which was:

"That he and his wife and their four children are traveling from Dayton, Ohio, to Bangor, Maine, and are making the journey in a house on wheels drawn by a big strong horse. They left Dayton, August 11, and have been on the road ever since, with the exception of a week when Mr. Lee worked in Westfield, N. Y., and another week when he worked in Rochester, N. Y., in the grape belt of York state. He has nothing to sell and does no begging. They left Dayton because he was out of work there for nine months and they decided to get back to New England. With sufficient funds to pay car fare the family decided to travel gypsy style. They sleep in the van but have their meals in the open, spreading a table cloth on the green grass. The oldest child is 15 years and the youngest is 15 months. Mr. Lee is a painter by trade. Eight years ago he and his family boarded the train at Bangor and went to Dayton. He expects to get back to the Pine Tree state October 20 and from Bangor he will go into the Maine woods to work. He has walked all of the way. The horse weighed 1400 lbs. when the trip was started. It has grown a little thin but is in good shape. The children all looked well, fat and happy. The outfit weighs 1600 pounds. Mr. Lee has no stated number of miles to make per day. He came in from Andover, Tuesday and headed for Laconia. He stops when night overtakes him. A bicycle and other personal property was tied on the rear of the van."

Mrs. Samira Dunham

The body of Mrs. Samira Dunham was brought from Bristol, N. H., Saturday, and services were held Sunday from the Spiller funeral parlors, Rev. O. E. Barnard, pastor of the Congregational church officiating. The flowers were abundant and beautiful. The bearers were George F. Hathaway, Harry Luck, Homer R. Luck, and Harry S. Lovejoy. Interment was in Rustfield Cemetery.

Mrs. Dunham was born in Sumner in October, 1851, the daughter of John A. and Annis Bisbee Keene. She was united in marriage with George B. Dunham of Paris, July 4, 1868. For many years they lived on a farm on Pleasant Ridge, above Norway Lake, which they later sold to G. Edward Marston the present owner. They lived in Lynn, Mass., for thirteen years where Mr. Dunham passed away Oct. 1, 1915. Mrs. Dunham remained there for about two years when she returned to Norway and had a few rooms in Harry Luck's house, where she spent her summers.

Three years ago Mrs. Dunham went to Bristol, N. H., as housekeeper for May Musgrove, of the Musgrove Printing Company, as her brother and wife, Mr and Mrs. Adna A Keene were living there with their daughter, Mrs. Harold Thayer, Mr. Thayer being manager of the Musgrove Printing Company. Mrs. Dunham was at home in Norway during July and August this summer and was in her usual health. Tuesday evening she was taken ill while attending an entertainment, but she rallied and was able to be about a little and Friday she was planning to be moved to her brother's when death came, the end coming very suddenly. The cause of death was angina pectoris.

She was amember of Oxford Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, and Mount Hope the Congregational church. She leaves one brother, Adna A. Keene. Among the relatives who came to the services were Mr. and Mrs. Adna A. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Thayer of Bristol, N. Weak, Weary Women

Learn the Cause of Daily Woes and End Them

When the back aches and throbs,
When housework is torture,
When night brings no rest nor sleep,
When urinary disorders set in,
Women's lot is a weary one.
Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

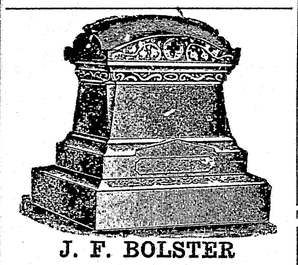

Have proved their worth in Norway.

This is one Norway woman's testimony.

Mrs. W. J. Olmstead, 95 Main St., says: "Four years ago my kidneys began to give me trouble. They were weak. My back ached so badly I could hardly get through with my housework. Everything I undertook to do seemed a drag for me. I was dizzy and could see little star-like spots before my eyes. My feet and ankles swelled. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills being so good and got four boxes and when I had finished taking them, I felt as well as ever. The backache ceased and my kidneys became regulated. I have told a number of people about Doan's Kidney Pills and never fail to recommend them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Olmstead had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Sargent Goes Away

Dr. William Sargent for many years the active head of Hebron Academy, has gone to Brooklyn, N. Y., with Mrs. Sargent, where he will pass the winter with Mrs. Sargent's sister Mrs. Scribner of 30 Garfield place. Dr. Sargent has not recovered from the stroke of apolexy he suffered last spring to any degree and it is feared that he will never recover. Mrs. Sargent who has been constantly by her husband's side since his illness has failed greatly in health, but it is hoped that she will be able to get some relief from this care during the winter in New York.

Both the doctor and his wife will return to Maine in the spring and will probably take up residence in their cottage near the academy. While the aged professor has no connection with the management of the fine old school for which he labored for so many years, he will always be considered a part of the institution and welcomed there by the students and faculty.

James David Howlett the new head of the Academy has thrown himself in to the work of regaining much of the ground lost during the last few years and it is believed that he will be successful in this attempt.

Y., with Mrs. Sargent, where he will pass the winter with Mrs. Sargent's sister Mrs. Scribner of 30 Garfield place. Dr. Sargent has not recovered from the stroke of apolexy he suffered last spring to any degree and it is feared that he will never recover. HEBRON

Dr. William Sargent for many years the active head of Hebron Academy, has gone to Brooklyn, N. Y., with Mrs. Sargent, where he will pass the winter with Mrs. Sargent's sister Mrs. Scribner of 30 Garfield place. Dr. Sargent has not recovered from the stroke of apolexy he suffered last spring to any degree and it is feared that he will never recover. Mrs. Sargent who has been constantly by her husband's side since his illness has failed greatly in health, but it is hoped that she will be able to get some relief from this care during the winter in New York.

Both the doctor and his wife will return to Maine in the spring and will probably take up residence in their cottage near the academy. While the aged professor has no connection with the management of the fine old school for which he labored for so many years, he will always be considered a part of the institution and welcomed there by the students and faculty.

James David Howlett the new head of the Academy has thrown himself in to the work of regaining much of the ground lost during the last few years and it is believed that he will be successful in this attempt.

Norway Town Farm

In the October bulletin of the State Board of Charities and Corrections a report on the conditions of the Norway Town Farm was given, as follows:

Inspected August 22. Superintendent and matron, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Chaplin, since April, 1920, at $600. Had been here previously for four years and had four years on Harrison farm. Extra help hired during haying. Capacity, eight. Inmates, two men and two women, all over 60 and two feeble minded. No religious services. All have callers.

House pleasantly located on high land and is homelike. Hot air furnace, running water, earth closets, kerosene lamps and one chemical extinguisher. Cellar dry and roomy. A window has been placed in dark side of inmates' living room, bathroom built, sink and slide arranged in pantry, new water tank in kitchen, water piped to barn, new yard fence built, two rooms painted and papered and many rocks removed from field near house. The officers take pride in making improvements and the superintendent is farming quite extensively, having six acres under cultivation. A big supply of winter wood is under cover.

Electric lights are desirable. The wires presumably could follow the telephone poles. House is remote from trunk lines of light company. The chairman of the overseers says the company is unwilling to connect until there are patrons enough along the line to pay for building. He is also in favor of selling the farm and buying a smaller, near the village, altho he hopes at some time to see provisions for a county almshouse or district infirmary.

HUDSON SUPER SIX

A New HUDSON $1895

A Greater Super-Six for Less Money

See It Here Today

It is a handsomer car
It is easier to operate
It is improved in many mechanical features

It is more economical
It has the exclusive Super-Six features for increasing car life

These improvements are added to the car that men for six years have given the largest buying preference of all fine cars.

They are advantages of commanding importance; fundamental in the results secured.

Every phase of car operation is affected. Greater economy results. A smoother, finer mechanism in all ways, from starting and handling throughout the entire range of its performance, is manifestly evident in the first ride.

And these are permanent values you will take satisfaction and delight in, for all the years you drive the car.

Hudson has never announced a "new car," upon the strength of mere minor improvements and refinements. These of course have been constantly in progress, since the first Super-Six was brought out. Nor has the mere addition or re-dressing of a car with accessories ever seemed to us justifiable grounds upon which to exploit the interest of motorists in a new car.

Why This Great Public Acclaim?

Hence we felt sure that the public would know there were genuine and basic changes and improvements in Hudson, when we announced a New Super-Six. And the almost universal interest manifested at the first showing of these cars, confirms our confidence fully.

All the notable qualities for which Hudson is known are retained in the new Hudson. There is even greater performance ability than enabled the old Hudsons to set their famous records.

Although the Hudson factory has participated in no contests for nearly five years, reminders of its performance supremacy are constantly present in the independently operated Super-Sixes that methodically win prize money in all important motor contests.

Performance Leadership Is Strengthened

Just as recently, a non-professional driver converted an old Super-Six at little cost, and entered it in the Pike's Peak hill-climb against teams of high-priced cars, specially built, factory managed and professionally driven. The Super-Six Special won its race and the Penrose trophy in 19 min., 16.2 sec., the fastest time in which this course was ever covered, except by another Super-Six, which in 1916 set the unequalled course record of 18 min., 24 sec.

No car, at any price, can share all the advantages of the new Hudson Super-Six. And only a few of the costliest share even a portion of them.

See the new Hudson and ride in it. Then decide whether any car lacking equivalent qualities can possibly compare with it?

HARRISON

Denison-Smith

A very pretty Fall wedding occurred Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Smith, when their daughter, Martha Alice, was united in marriage with Hobart True Denison. The ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock in the presence of relatives of both families, Rev. W. Paul Curtis of Auburn officiating, using the double ring service. The service was very impresive in its simplicity. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mona Green, the bridal couple took their places beneath an arch of autumn leaves and evergreen, with little Charlotte Nevers acting as ring bearer.

The bride looked very lovely in her gown of white satin, with her veil of tulle, reaching the hem of the gown, caught with orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls, the gift of the groom. The little ring bearer and the pianist also were remembered with tokens.

The rooms were attractively decorated with the fall colors, evergreen and autumn leaves predominating, streamers being suspended from the four corners of the room to the center, and to the arch. Bouquets of dahlias were in profusion throughout the rooms.

An informal reception followed the ceremony and delicious refreshments of cake and ice cream were served. While everybody was busy with this part of the program, the bridal couple made a neat get-away by stepping into a waiting automobile at the door, not stopping to remove their wedding clothes, and thus escaped the send-off that had been planned. Somewhere over the hill they changed cars and left for parts known only to themselves, on a week's honeymoon. The disappointed merry-makers promise a celebration on their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Denison are prominent young people of Harrison, popular in the social and musical life and also workers in the church. Mrs. Denison is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Smith. She is a graduate of Bridgton Academy, is a member of the Rebekahs and the grange, where she is prominent. She is an accomplished musician and is always ready to assist on any and all occasions, both with her singing and playing. She has been employed for some time at the Harrison post office.

Mr. Denison is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Denison and the grandson of the late Harthon Dawes, well known in pomological circles for many years. He is a graduate of Bridgton Academy and entered the State Agricultural College at Durham, N. H. During the Mexican disturbance he enlisted with the State National Guard, and went to the border. After his return north, he remained with the company, and at the outbeak of the World War he enlisted with the Hospital Corps and saw hard service at the front. After his discharge from overseas service, he returned to Harrison, and has assisted in carrying on the large Dawes farm on Dawes' Hill, where he and his bride will make their home. For the present they will live with his parents, and Harrison people are rejoicing that they will remain in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Denison have been the recipients of many valuable and useful gifts, including a good sum of money in gold, liberty bonds, and checks. Relatives at the wedding from out of town came from Framingham, Mass., Portland and Norway. It is a strange coincidene that Rev. Mr. Curtis who officiated at these nuptials has presided at many ceremonies in both families including weddings, baptisms and funerals, He is a former pastor of the Harrison Baptist Church.

Mrs. Lawrence Knight

Mrs. Katherine C. wife of Lawrence Knight passed away at the Maine General Hospital at Portland Tuesday, October 11th. Mrs. Knight was operated upon for gall stones in August and had been failing since.

Mrs. Knight was a member of the Harrison Congregational church. Funeral services were held at her late home on Hillside Avenue, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 attended by Rev. E. A. Morris of South Paris. The bearers were Ralph Burnham, Henry Purington, J. Pitts and O. N. Abbott. Wyonegonic Club

Because of stormy weather Mrs. C. S. Whitney entertained the members of the club at the vestry of the Free Baptist church instead of at camp as had been planned on Wednesday, October 12th.

A delicious dinner was served at noon consisting of roast beef, sweet and Irish potatoes, turnip, cranberry sauce, bread, gravey, cakes, olives, pickles, pineapple, bananas, apples and coffee. The club program was as follows:

Shower for Bride-to-be

The members of Harrison Rebekah Lodge and a few invited guests gave a delightful surprise to M. Alice Smith on Wednesday evening after a special meeting of the Lodge.

As the members passed to the dinning hall for refreshments Miss Smith was presented a card telling where to search for valuable necessities for a prospective bride. After more cards and more verses the searchers found under a prettily decorated table in the dinning room a large pink basket loaded with beautiful and useful presents including cut glass, silver, pictures, pyrex, linen and china.

Miss Smith was taken completely by surprise and was assisted in opening the gifts etc. by the prospective groom, Hobert Denison. Dainty refreshments of Harlequin ice cream, cookies and fancy crackers were served and the evening finished with dancing.

Miss Smith who is one of Harrison's most charming and popular young ladies was showered with good wishes for the future.

Most Ailments Due to One Thing

That Is, Impure, Impoverished, Devitalized Blood.

Probably 75 per cent. of the ailments of the human race are due to an abnormal condition of the blood,—thin, poor, anemic.

This fact and the further fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood, by creating a healthy appetite, aiding digestion, promoting assimilation and thereby securing in full all the benefits of complete nutrition, must impress the thoughtful with the wisdom of giving this great medicine a trial.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is greatest merit plus greatest economy, the most for the money. Get it.

CENTER LOVELL

Entertained at Everbreeze

Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead from Newark, N. J., recently entertained at their summer home in Lovell several friends. Those being invited for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Otis Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. George Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Cushman, Mr. and Mrs. George Nason, C. H. True, Mrs. Jones and several others. Mr. Whitehead very thoughtfully offered the services of his gentlemanly chauffeur to his guests of the evening. The walk across the bridge with its long lines of fragrant white flowers, the moonlight on the lake, the electric lights scattered among the trees, showing the many beds of flowers, and the spacious entrance to beautiful Everbreeze made a picture that will long linger in the minds of each one present. After all were cozily seated a very pleasing musical program was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whitehead and their talented little daughter Janette. Mr. Whitehead's famous cigars served to loosen the tongues of the bashful (?) members of the party, Mr. True and Mr. Nason, and an hour of social chat followed in which the current events of the day, hunting, fishing, etc., were animatedly discussed. Delicious refreshments were served and special mention should be made of the celebrated New Jersey crullers made by the hostess for this occasion.

Mr. Whitehead and wife are very free in offering the hospitalities of their home and indeed it is a pleasure to visit Everbreeze filled with its rare treasures of beauty and interest. We feel sure that the presence of Mr. Whitehead and family adds much to the charms of our dear old Lovell.

From there down over the hills to Greenfields; stopped at the house and found Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McIntire at home, and also his brother, B. G. McIntire and wife and Glenn McIntire of Norway, Mr. and Mrs. Norton Jillson of Bolster's Mills. They also had a pleasant call on Mr. McIntre's aunt, Mrs. Maria Washburn, who is making her home with him at present. Mr. McIntire showed a splendid lot of ears of yellow corn which he had hung in rows under the piazza drying for seed. They showed some immense ears perfectly filled at the tip which they told us were picked just five months from the day of planting. From these we went to see the big herd of Holsteins for which Greenfields is famous. There were 51 head in the big barn. It was near milking and feeding time and both men and cattle were busy. We made a short call here and then home by the way of Bisbeetown, North Waterford, and over Sawin Hill.

THIS WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

Brings a Ray of Hope to Childless Women

Lowell, Mass.—"I had anemia from the time I was sixteen years old and was very irregular. If I did any housecleaning or washing I would faint and have to be put to bed, my husband thinking every minute was my last. After reading your text-book for women I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and have never felt better than I have the last two years. I can work, eat, sleep, and feel as strong as can be. Doctors told me I could never have children—I was too weak—but after taking Vegetable Compound it strengthened me so I gave birth to an eight pound boy. I was well all the time, did all my work up to the last day, and had a natural birth. Everybody who knew me was surprised, and when they ask me what made me strong I tell them with great pleasure, 'I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and never felt better in my life.' Use this testimonial at any time."—Mrs. Elizabeth Smart, 142 W. Sixth St., Lowell, Mass. This experience of Mrs. Smart is surely a strong recommendation for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is only one of a great many similar cases.
